Immaculately presented and perfectly positioned we offer to the market this quintessential Australian family home in the heritage hamlet of Largs.

You will love its proximity to the Valley combined with the best of village life; everything is within striking distance and there's a real community feel to the area.

Approaching the home and you are met with a brand new oversized, pitched carport leading to a further enclosed carport behind a remote garage door which is designed to accommodate at least four cars and is perfect for all the toys or a place to tinker. You will not have to worry about where to park the boat or trailer here, a place for everything and everything has a place in the 19.2 X 4.5m undercover structure.

Inside and you are greeted with a perfectly presented renovation where the lounge room opens onto the kitchen then flowing into the large family and dining area or through the glass stacker doors onto the outdoor entertaining space.

It's testament to the owner's vision and respect for the history of the property that it was able to effect such a dramatic transformation; the owner's selections have tied the contemporary and traditional together beautifully. In the home's core living space, laid back luxury is the name of the game. There is a real airiness to the house because of the large rooms and high ceilings with expanses of glass drawing daylight into its rooms.

Perfect for the family with the four bedrooms, two bathrooms and options for family living spaces. Throughout the whole home, quality is the overwhelming feeling thanks to beautiful kitchen and bathroom renovations and bathrooms.

During the warmer months, the large sliding doors by the fireplace open allowing access to the generous alfresco area ♦ complete with fire pit ♦ to function as a third living area. Opening the stacking doors at the rear of the home expands the living space exponentially.

Not surprisingly, the family will often be found convening here in the outdoor entertaining area where it will become the heart of the home. An open yet private space made more inviting by the wood burning pizza oven. Afternoon dappled light enhances the feeling of home here and once settled by the fire with drink in hand it will be hard to move.

Designed for relaxing and an entertaining, this meticulously remodelled home is a lesion in quiet luxury.

This property is proudly marketed by Michael Haggarty and Andrew Lange, contact 0408 021 921 or 0403 142 320 for further information or to book your private inspection.
